Peter,

What time works best for you? I get up around 6, get to work around 7 and I plan to be at a jobsite around 8:30. Between 6 & 6:30 works or after 8:30.

Just so you are aware, I spoke with the ref who was AR1 on the game. He told me that, in his opinion, Janiu called a fair game and had good coverage on the field. The Illinois Valley player involved in the "altercation" was already on a yellow card and yes he can be a handful. The incident directly prior to the altercation occurred 2 or so seconds after the ball had been sent up field and Janiu was heading after the ball to keep up with play. Then he heard yelling and turned to see the CCHS player on the ground and went back to address what he saw.

In Janiu's opinion, he thought the CCHS player may have instigated something (although he has no evidence) in order to get the IV player out of the match with a second caution (just his opinion and he didn't act on it).

As for me, what was said to the referee was public, provocative and personal. This I confirmed with AR1. Whether or not the coach disagrees with the way a game is called doesn't give him the right to berate or belittle the referee.

I look forward to talking with you.

Regards,
Jeff

Jeff – I spoke with Dave Fennell. He mentioned he'd emailed you something about this appeal. Let's talk tomorrow morning and we'll figure it out.

Thanks,
Peter
