

Dave:

Aarich had yelled at the referee after Number 9 on IV kicked Travis after the play and hit him in the back with his shoulder. No. 9 had already received a yellow card and was out of control so Aarich reacted and pointed out that the referee's first priority was to protect all players and that he wasn't doing this. The ref was right there and had to have seen it but chose not to do anything which was a concern for us. We didn't want players to get hurt. We had held off from scoring in the second half, not wanting to run the score up but the boys were starting to get cheap shots from IV so we said play hard and go for goal. The referee never gave Aarich a warning, no yellow card, and no Red Card. He said after the game he doesn't give red cards and then later said, oh, I guess in high school I could have given a red card.

We don't want this ref involved in any way in any of our games. He is out of his element and doesn't have control of the game.
