To whom it may concern,

My name is Tahisha Ita the mother of Renai Ita, I am writing this letter to address Renai's grades from last year.

I have seven children and we have had a rough year last year. Renai's father and I temporarily split up last year and were possibly going to get a divorce, due to personal problems we were having in our marriage. My children and I moved to my parents house. I was always at work to try my best to support my children. Renai struggled with this separation tremendously. My parents were there to help the younger ones with homework, reading and showering them. Renai has never had any problems in school before. The curriculum at Renai's previous high school was difficult for her while having problems at home. Renai's dad and I started to work our problems out, and he lost his job. So, at times we could not afford to buy school project stuff or anything they needed. Renai attended a private school which was very understanding to the situation and they continued to allow her to go there.

I had no idea she was struggling so much in school, she never spoke to me about it, and again I was always at work. That was also new for my children, being that I was always home, there for awards parent teacher conferences and extra curricular activities. So when I received an email from the school counselor, I was really caught by surprise. I immediately emailed and phoned every teacher to see what could be done to improve her grades. She did after school tutoring and as much extra credit that she could do within the short amount of time that she had.

Rehni stated that her finals were difficult but she worked really hard on them.

So my family and I decided to make the move to Oregon. So that my new children could be in a better environment to focus on school to apply themselves to the best of their ability and to be a lot happier as a family.

Please consider this letter and if you have any questions or concerns please do not hesitate to contact me, via email or phone.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
Johnna B.

Renai Ika
Hardship
Aloha High School
September 15,2015

Dear Athletic Committee;

We are asking for a Hardship for Renai Ika.

Renai and her family moved into Beaverton this past summer. Renai has six siblings and the family moved in with Keith Akina (an Aloha parent and uncle) when they arrived in Beaverton. Mom later rented a home that she could afford in the Westview boundary. Keith has power of attorney over Renai and her 9th grade brother.

Renai wants to play volleyball this fall.

It is our hope that she will be granted quick acceptance from the committee.

Sincerely,

Tom Bendt
Athletic Director
Aloha High School
