To Todd Nagel and OSAA,

It has been my pleasure to work with Ryan Fitzpatrick since he enrolled at Gresham High School during the second semester of his sophomore year. He is now beginning his senior year and I have every expectation that he will graduate on time.

Ryan's achievements in school are to be commended. He was slightly behind when he started here, and he is still catching up. He has shared some of his personal and family struggles, and I must say I am impressed that he is doing as well as he is. Ryan qualifies for Title X under McKinney-Vento, and lives in home with multiple families. Being involved in sports is a key to his academic success.

Ryan is very good to stay in touch with me, and we have a plan for his final credits. In addition to his classes here, he will need two additional courses through credit recovery. Please note he was able to complete one course over the summer.

If there is anything else I can do to help Ryan, do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Susan Fields
