Re: eligibility request

I am writing this letter in support of an eligibility request for Jesus Lara.

Jesus started his freshmen year at West and played soccer here. Mom explains that he ran into some relationship trouble with a girl and his grades began to slip. She then transferred him to Salem Academy for the 2nd semester. Once at SA, his grades went back up and parents felt that he as in a healthier spot, emotionally speaking.

During the summer, Jesus joined a group of SA students for summer soccer. As Mom explains, they played maybe two matches in late June/early July, then the coach took off to Alaska and the team "fizzled out."

Mom, concerned about her finances and her ability to pay for Jesus and siblings to go to SA this year, decided to re-enroll him back here at West. If we allowed him to play or practice right now, we would be in violation of the OSAA's 8.6.5 "Transfers to a School with Affiliation" rule because he is returning here w/in one calendar year of when he last played here. Jesus, by the way, still lives in the same West Salem home that he has for years (i.e. a change of residence has not occurred).

I would argue that because of his unique circumstance and because he did not represent Salem Academy during a sports season, an exception to the affiliation rule should be made here.

Thank you for considering my request to make Jesus eligible to participate in a fall sport here at West.

Sincerely,

Bill Wittman

The following questions need to be answered to the satisfaction of the principal, athletic director, and the OSAA or district committee. Explain thoroughly.

1. How is it that the student finds themselves in this situation?
2. Why should an exception be made to the eligibility rules in this case?

To Whom It May Concern:

It has been made aware to me and my husband that there are OSAA eligibility requirements that have to be met in order for a youth to play soccer in high school. I would like to offer an explanation as to why an exception exists in this particular case and that we as a family made completely honest and conscientious decisions in regards to our son's transfer from West Salem High School to Salem Academy and back to West Salem again. We have been living at the same above referenced address for over four years which resides in the West Salem school district. At no time was any malice of intent undertaken- we simply wanted to do what was best for both our son and our family.

That being said, please allow me to share why my husband and I pulled our son Jesus Roman Lara out of West Salem High School in February this year. Our son is a wonderful, intelligent boy who has been a joy to our family. We became increasingly more concerned for him when we realized that he was involved in a toxic relationship with another girl at West who was hurting him. His grades severely dropped as did his emotional welfare, and as a result we pulled him out of West Salem High School.

Salem Academy allowed us to enroll him mid semester because of the situation, for which we were very grateful. We were amazed at how incredibly well he responded to the new environment. His grades remained very high through his time at Salem Academy and he was very happy, as well.

Unfortunately, attending a private school has a very high tuition and in spite of our desire to place all three of our sons in Salem Academy we had to be realistic about how such an action would affect our family's budget. We decided that because our son was doing so well again emotionally and academically that he would be prepared enough to re-enter West Salem High School.

We did ultimately enroll him this school year for West Salem High and he is very excited to be back. He has expressed a sincere desire to do well this year and I know that he will. We believe that his personal situation is unique and justifies an exception to the eligibility rule. We know that Jesus would very much like to play soccer for his school this year.

Thank you for taking the time to read this and thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

April Lara

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to help others understand why I have moved to different schools this year. Realizing that these situation can sometimes hurt a young man's ability to play soccer is stressful, and I want to take a moment to share with you how much I really want to play soccer and that I feel that I have an exception to the eligibility rule.

When I first went to West Salem High School as a Freshman, I was doing fairly well as a student and as a person. I made some choices though that I shouldn't have, and that I regret. I ended up being involved in a relationship with another girl that was traumatic to me. I became distracted and my grades dropped severely. My parents were also concerned so they ended up pulling me out of West Salem High School and put me in Salem Academy.

I very much wanted to turn over a new leaf and improve my life, and I am happy to share with you that I did just that. I finished my school year there with nearly straight A's. My parents and I have talked with me and told me that although they would like me to continue going to Salem Academy along with both my brothers but that it is too expensive. They told me they were proud of me and how well I have been doing, and that they trust me to go back to West Salem High School and keep on the great choices I have been making.

The sad thing is, my mom told me that I may not be able to play soccer at West Salem because of an eligibility rule. I truly want to play soccer and be a successful student while at West. Please allow me to play there, knowing that my family and I had only made transfers because of personal and financial reasons that preventing me from going to an expensive private school.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter and for trusting my words.

Respectfully,

Jesus Roman Lara
