my Daughter Carina Rodriguez hasnt tryed her best this year but I no she will do better.

I will help her with anything she needs my help on. I may not live with her right now but I no she will have a better year this year.

She will have to catch up on all that and I know she can do it she just needs to ~~to~~ put a litte effort in the things she does. If she does not pass more than 5 classes then she knows she wont be able to play. I just really hope she gets her things together.

I am her dad
