

Curtis Monken will be able to graduate on time. He has two years to complete 16 credits which means he would need to pass all his classes. Summer school is also an option as our school district offers up to 4 classes for each student each summer. If Curtis passes his classes summer school won't be needed but it is an option.