

My name is Stacey White. I am Kaitlyn Lobato's mother. I'm not really sure what I'm supposed to be writing except please don't punish my daughter for my mistakes and things that were out of our control. We had a very bad year last school year. Kaitlyn started school in Myrtle Point. She was being bullied so I put her in Winter Lakes where she did online classes. She had a hard time understanding the online classes and I was getting ready to put her back in school in Myrtle Point but we had an opportunity in Winston. We moved to Winston and I tried to enroll her at Douglas High School but they said she had to wait until the new semester which was almost 6 weeks away. She was out of school the whole time. When she did finally start at Douglas, she did really good fitting in and liked her classes. She would come to Myrtle Point to visit her grandmother on weekends and things were looking up. One weekend she was in Myrtle Point, she was sexually assaulted by a grown man. She missed a lot of school due to the trauma. She now has court pending. We are now back in Myrtle Point due to my husband and I getting a divorce. We are currently homeless and probably having the hardest time we have ever had but I have never seen Kaitlyn more motivated.
