Subject: ✱ RE: Rationale for DAC denial of Parkrose HS Student Eligibility

The information summarized below seemed convoluted and was not consistent. Therefore we voted against it.

It was represented that in the spring the student got a letter of intent to transfer from Benson to Parkrose. Benson AD recalls being told by student that he was already living in Parkrose. Benson AD hears that maybe student is actually living in PPS and so he calls Parkrose AD because Parkrose AD needs to know this.

In the fall Parkrose AD calls Benson to say he called home to learn that student is living in Parkrose with his mother. If the family has moved there is not an issue so Parkrose AD assumes all is well.

At some point Parkrose AD learns that student is living with an uncle and the family has not moved, which means he is not eligible.

Subject: Rationale for DAC denial of Parkrose HS Student Eligibility

Hi, Matt-

The OSAA has received the paperwork and denial ruling for Wilfried Likayi, Parkrose HS. Parkrose HS has requested an appeal.

Can you provide a more specific rationale for the District's denial of the above eligibility, please?

Thank you for your help.
