HIGH SCHOOL

November 13, 2015

To District Athletic Committee:

Kelvin Romano, a sophomore at Valley Catholic and one of the strongest students in his class, decided to transfer to Southridge this morning, even though he was entirely happy at Valley. He's very interested in computers and his neighborhood friends, all of whom attend Southridge, play and work with them in their free time. Kelvin, therefore, transferred. Today was his first day. He was there for two hours and then returned to Valley with his mom, saying that he'd made a bad decision. He was assured he could return to Valley right away, and he's in class here now.

Kelvin plays on our fourth basketball team. He's so happy to be back that he hasn't even thought of eligibility, and we very much hope he won't need to.

Thank you for your time in considering this hardship waiver.

Sincerely,

Mr. Thomas,

I will be happy to explain Kelvin's "transfer," even though I thought that we successfully canceled the Withdrawal Request last Friday.

Due to various reasons, we wanted to try the neighborhood HS. But the Beaverton school district doesn't allow any shadowing nor even meeting with the teachers before a transfer. More so, a student is not allowed to be enrolled in two schools on the same day. So, we had to go through all the paperwork to give it a try. However, on the 1st day, after attending the neighborhood HS for just 2.5 hours, Kelvin quickly realized that it was a big mistake to leave VC. So, we immediately went to VCHS office and had canceled the withdrawal paperwork.

Please let me know if there is anything else you might need related to this.

Have a great day!

Blessings,

Alissa Romano
