RE: Hallie Harkins

Hallie Harkins is a sophomore at Redmond High School. She is currently ineligible to play basketball due to her move mid-year without a change of joint residence.

Hallie lived the past two years (8th and 9th grades) in Chiloquin, OR. She has done adequately, passing all of her classes although, she expects more of herself as does her family. In an effort to give her a better education and more opportunity, she has moved from her grandmother's house to Redmond to live with her aunt and uncle.

I do not believe that Hallie's move is athletically motivated. I believe that she has been in tough circumstances and that a fresh start at Redmond High School would be in her best interest. I believe that being able to participate in the JV basketball team would be a good opportunity for her.

Yours respectfully,

Nathan Stanley
Redmond High School
Athletic Director

11/3/15

To whom it may concern,

Hailie Harkins has moved to Redmond in order to get a better education. I believe she will excel in her academics with the help of Redmond High School's resources and staff. I think Hailie will have more educational and occupational opportunities here in Redmond.

-Jessica Curl

To whom it may concern I hailie
Harkins have come to Redmond High school for a better education, there are many other opportunities here at Redmond High school than Chiloquin Jr/sr High school. There are also other opportunities for colleges and other classes to help for college and prepare me for college.
Going to school here will help me grow to be a better student and a better young adult.

Hailie Harkins

10/3/15

11/3/15

To Who it may concern,

Hailie Perkins has moved to Redmond with her Aunt and Uncle to get a better education. Moving to Redmond will give her education and employment opportunities that she does not have available to her in Chiloquin.

Thank you
