Austin Bengess will be transferring to Falls City School. He started his freshman year at Dallas High School, as did his ~~previous~~ six older siblings. It hasn't been a good fit for him. He has been in Falls City for the last four years of his schooling. He liked the smaller school and loved playing sports with his friends. The bigger school hasn't been as personnal and its difficult to get extra help with homework. He gave it a good try but has decided the smaller environment is a better choice for him.

Thank you,
Arlene Bengess
