RE: Eligibility Hardship – Chloe Bliss – Letter of Explanation

Dear District Athletic Committee,

Chloe Bliss is a fine example of what a high school student should be. She has received good grades, has attended advanced classes, and has essentially represented that which a model student should be. For Chloe's junior year of high school, it was intended that she attend school in Austria as a foreign exchange student and she started this year doing just that – attending school in Austria.

Due to the recent terrorist activity in Paris, France and other parts of Europe, federal travel restrictions and other safety concerns have compromised and negatively impacted Chloe's situation in Austria. Thus, she has returned home to her family in Prospect, Oregon and is now attending Prospect Charter School, again. She intends to finish her high school years at Prospect Charter School.

Chloe is requesting an eligibility hardship due to this situation. She would like to play basketball and softball this year, as well as next year.

Please consider this information in your review of her hardship request for eligibility.

Sincerely,

Rod Kuykendall
