To Whom It May Concern,

My nephew, Jayce Gregg, came to live with me in September, 2015. His mother lives in Florida. She is not willing to care for him. His father, my brother, is incarcerated and therefore is unable to care for Jayce. Our intention is that he lives at my home in Elgin, Oregon while he finishes high school.

Jayce loves the competition and interaction with his peers when he plays sports. This will be his first year playing basketball. He has been enjoying practices and learning the game.

If you need any further information, please contact me.

Sincerely,
