To whom it may concern,

My name is Emma Hatcher, I am 15 years old and am a sophomore attending corvallis high school. As of this last june I have recently moved to corvallis to live with my brother Jared Thayer and his wife Cheliss Thayer. Last year I was attending south medford high school, logos charter school and phoenix high school as a freshman due to bullying, time management issues and unsuccessful grades. My mom and I decided with her working full time I would be able to get a better education here with the full time support of my siblings. By my grade change from last year to the current date it has been quite successful. With my move being a personal reason I hope you will consider me for competing with the Corvallis high school swim team.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Emma Hatcher". The signature is fluid and cursive, with "Emma" on the top line and "Hatcher" on the bottom line.
