To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter in support of Keith Simmons. I have been concerned in the past with Keith and some of the choices he was making and the effects on his school work but also his well-being. I have seen a real change in Keith both behaviorally and academically. Keith has put an emphasis on his school work and I know that graduating on time is important to him. Talking with Keith, I know he understands the hole he put himself in and is already embracing the challenge before him. I was very proud to see that he passed all his classes this last quarter and I know that was a goal for him. I have been very happy to see the changes in Keith, in the classroom and out of the classroom. I think sports is exactly what Keith needs to keep his focus on the right priorities. Our weekly grade checks will help make sure that Keith stays on track to graduate on time with his peers. Please consider allowing him to participate in athletics this year.

Thank you for your consideration,

David Morgan

Dear OSAA, i think i should be eligible for basket ball this year because i turned myself around and started getting better grades an participating in school more.

I have my mind set on graduating, Try to have perfect attendance, Turn my work in on time and do better for myself.

I know last year I didn't do so well, like turn my work in, missed more days of school. Then I should have, didn't participate as much and has an attitude. I matured a little bit and learned to be respectful of others. I learned that I need school to have a career in life.

my home situation last year was messed up. I moved from ~~my~~ mom's house to my friend's, but it didn't work out because I didn't have a room. I slept on a couch that was uncomfortable. I always wake up through out the night and wouldn't get as much sleep, that's why I would be tired at school.

I moved back in with <sup>my</sup> mom and now I'm doing better and being successful in school. That's why I think I should be eligible for basket ball.

Keith has shown outstanding progress in his academic ability over the past year. He has also taken more responsibility at home, doing chores and helping around the house. We believe Keith deserves to participate in the O.S.O.A. We are proud of Keith's achievements over the past year, and his choice to be a part of Sports place us.
