To Whom It May Concern:

RE: Ethan Krupp

On behalf of Ethan Krupp, Crescent Valley High School would like to submit a hardship for a mid-year transfer without the parents.

Ethan is a freshman and would like to participate on the freshman basketball team this winter. Ethan enrolled at Crescent Valley on November 2, 2015. He currently has adjusted well in the classroom his Intro to Lit grade is low because the teacher has not adjusted for his late arrival to school

Ethan's grandfather, his guardian, has written explaining what he has been through over the past couple of years. This clearly is out of his control and we believe basketball would be a great way for Ethan to become connected to Crescent Valley.

If you have any questions please give me a call.

Thanks

To whom it may concern:

My grandson, Ethan Scott Krupp, is a freshman at Crescent Valley High School.

Several weeks ago, Ethan, for reasons explained below, moved from Milwaukee, Oregon where he lived with his mother for a short period, back to Corvallis to live with me, his grandfather and guardian.

Ethans mother was a Meth addict and his step father was both verbally and physically abusive. It was at that point that my ex wife and I got guardianship of Ethan and he lived with us for 7 years..

This past summer, Ethans mother, now clean for 2 years, asked if Ethan could move up to Milwaukee to live with her, his two younger brothers and her boyfriend.

After a few weeks, while attending attending Rex Putnam High School, the arguing and yelling around the house was too traumatic for Ethan, too much like his childhood had been, and asked if he could move back to Corvallis and live with me.
