

Mr. Welter,

My name is Brendon Johnson,

Last year I attended Bonanza HS for a while, and my Dad decided to get a court order for custody, and he pulled me out to move to Nevada. We moved to the desert, and there wasn't school. I tried online school, but kept missing the deadlines. We moved to California, where there were lots of fights, and then I moved back with my mom in Klamath Falls. I started to go to Falcon Heights to recover credit, then my mom moved to Medford and we got in a big argument. I moved to my cousin's house in Lowell for a bit, then just moved here with my Dad. I was going to get my GED, but decided I need a diploma.

If you look at my transcripts, Gilchrist is the one place I passed all my classes. The kids here have been amazing. They want me to wrestle, and I want to be part of the team. Being out for wrestling helps me want to come to school, and do my work.

My Dad is buying a house here, and we will be here long term.

Thanks for reading this letter. Please allow me to wrestle this year. I will work hard to make up credits and graduate.

Brendon Johnson

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Brendon Johnson". The script is cursive and fluid, with the first name "Brendon" written in a larger, more prominent style than the last name "Johnson".
