To Midwestern League District Committee,

I am writing on behalf of a tenth grade boy named Tanner Wyatt who is returning to Crater High School after a short stay at South Medford High. Tanner is academically eligible and is facing what I consider to be a hardship.

Tanner started his high school career at Newberg High School as a freshman. He started wrestling for Newberg before his parents took him and his two siblings to live with his grandparents in Central Point in January of 2015. Tanner enrolled at Crater and stayed here the remainder of his freshman year, but did not participate in sports.

Tanner's mom was then diagnosed with mental illness and left the family. Dad then moved in with his girlfriend in Medford and took all three children with him where they lived this school year until January 3rd. Tanner's father and girlfriend blew up their garage while manufacturing drugs and the court system removed all three children from the home and place them back with the grandparents in Central Point.

I believe it is in Tanner's best interest to continue to be allowed to wrestle in hopes that this connection in athletics will help provide something positive in his life that will encourage him to do well in school and stay with a positive peer group, be mentored by a male role model and add some stability to his life.

Thank you,

David Heard

To Whom it May Concern,

I Started my 9th grade year at Newberg High School and during my year as a freshman we moved to central point where I finished my year at crater High School living with my mom, Dad, and siblings at my grandparents house. My mother was diagnosed with a mental illness in Newberg. She moved to central point with us around January 8th of 2015 that summer she just left out of the blue and went to Michigan where she now lives. My Dad found a new girlfriend that we all liked and we moved in with her and her son into a two bedroom house in medford at the beginning of the school year so I started school at South Medford High School, we were going through some rough financial problems because it was hard to find a job for my dad in medford for his job/experience. I guess, my dad took a different route in making money by making Marijuana "Dabs" in the garage none of us knew about this because he didn't want us to be around the garage and tried to keep us away from it. Around January 3rd or so I got a call when I was at a wrestling meet with South Medford that our garage caught on fire. I got home and sure enough it was worse then I thought everything was burned I had to stay at my dad's girlfriend's friends for a couple days then me and my brother and sister got separated and put into foster homes for a couple days. I saw my dad after the fire and he had 3rd degree burns all over him and his girl friend got put into jail, I moved in with my grandparents and now I'm enrolled at crater and want to finish my year wrestling at crater.

Sincerely,

Tanner Wyatt
