To Whom it May Concern:

Please accept this letter as verification of Vanessa Jones' transfer to Trinity Lutheran High School effective January 7, 2016.

Vanessa attended Trinity Lutheran School from pre school – 5th grade. As she transitioned to middle school her family made the decision to enroll her in public school. Her transfer back to Trinity was the desire of her parents to put her back into an environment that was a positive one as she had experienced during her early years. Their hope for Vanessa is to give her the opportunity for an excellent education in an environment that will support her gifts and talents.

We are thrilled to welcome Vanessa back to Trinity and hope that she will be able to participate in the activities afforded to all of our students to help her grow spiritually, academically, physically and emotionally.

Thank you for your consideration.

To whom it may concern,

Vanessa Jones competed for MVHS in Cross Country this Fall (2015). She was a student in good standing here during the Fall sports season.

Let me know if you have further questions.

Thanks,

To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of my daughter, Vanessa Jones. She was attending Mountain View High School up until last week, and is now at Trinity Lutheran School. She will most likely remain there through the rest of her high school years. Vanessa is a freshman this year.

Things started off well for her at Mountain View this year. She was getting good grades, seemed to have a good group of friends, and was active in sports. Her cross country team took 2nd at state, and she even lettered this year.

Once cross country ended, things kind of started to fall apart for her. Kids began to pick on her. A group of boys stole her cellphone and passed it around for over a month. She was being teased the whole time. Eventually the school called me and had found out who was responsible, but sadly her phone had been destroyed. iPhones are not cheap! My wife and I have very open communication with our daughter, so we did a lot of talking about the environment she was in at Mountain View. We were blown away to find out the things that kids are into these days, even at just 14 years old. In addition to the bullying that she was dealing with, the kids all around her were doing drugs, drinking, and having casual sex regularly. It was apparent to me that this was no place for my little girl. My fear was that she would overcompensate for being picked on, and (in an attempt to fit in) fall into the same traps that so many other kids were in. I was just not willing to take that chance so I pulled her out of Mountain View, and put her back in Trinity where she had attended grade school.

We love the Trinity family, and we know that we made the right decision for Vanessa. The one potential hang up, it seems, is her ability to play basketball. Now that she is at Trinity, she would love to be a part of the basketball team. It would give her the ability to compete and also help her to make some friends. I can't imagine it is easy switching to a new school in the middle of the school year and having to make all new friends. I understand that she could also continue swimming for Mountain View, but that is not an option as at least one of the kids on the swim team was a big part of Vanessa's problems there.

Please allow our daughter to start playing basketball for Trinity. She is an amazing girl and deserves the opportunity to take advantage of all that is available to her at her new school.

Thank you,

Derek & Jackie Jones

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Vanessa Jones. I am in 9th grade, and just switched from Mountain View High School to Trinity Lutheran School.

I have played sports every year since I was in 2nd grade, never really taking any time off. Playing in sports helps me to relieve stress, keeps me in shape, and allows me to stay focused on what is important in my life. I love to compete. There is no better feeling than crossing the finish line in a race or hearing the final whistle of a winning game, knowing that I gave 100% of my effort. It is what I live for!

I started playing basketball when I was in the second grade. All throughout middle school I played COBO for Mountain View, and I also played for Skyview. This year, I decided to try swimming instead, and I regretted it almost immediately. Basketball has been a part of my life for what seems like forever, and I feel like switching schools is a perfect time to pick up where I left off. I really miss it!

Earlier this year, I went to state with my cross-country team and we placed second. I trained all summer and fall for that meet, and my work definitely paid off. I took 36th place at state and my coaches, family, and friends were very pleased with my performance.

It seems that often when an athlete takes a season off from playing a sport, they are behind for the next season. Since I am no longer attending school at Mountain View, it only makes sense that I support my new school athletically. It would also help me get involved with my new classmates and hopefully make some friends with similar interests. I know that if I have wait till next year I will not be nearly as motivated and will be feeling very lonely and discouraged.

Life at Mountain View was just really hard for me. The environment was not very focused, so I began to struggle not only in my classes but also socially. I found it very hard to find a group of friends that had the same values as me. The kids there were really disapproving when I didn't fit in with them. They would make fun of people for not doing what they thought was "cool".

Eventually, it got to the point to where I didn't really have any friends because it seemed like everybody was willing to give up their morals to be cool and I just wouldn't stand for it. I have a hard time around people who try to pressure me to be honest. When I am around people who are a good influence on me I am much happier. This school change will be perfect for me making new friends that will help me become a better person in the long run.

I am very excited about this switch. I went to Trinity from preschool all the way to fifth grade and I remember how amazing the environment was. It is a very wonderful, God-based school. This was a decision made between my family and myself. We feel that this is the best place for me to attend school and we are SO excited that they were able to fit me in for the rest of the year. My only concern going into this was the sports issue. I would be very appreciative if I was allowed to play this season.

Thank you taking my input into consideration. I am a very athletic person, and it only seems right that I would be able to participate on behalf of Trinity, now that I am going to school there. I need the opportunity to make some new friends and start to fit in at my new school.

Sincerely,

Vanessa Jones
