

Jordan Herrera

Dear whoever it may concern, I did mess up in the past, but I've been going to school and really trying. Sophomore year, I will admit that I had skipped school quite a bit.
I did this when I was at the point that I just couldn't handle school. I was feeling so much anxiety that I felt lost, confused, and my mind was cloudy a lot. In class I would be there but my mind wasn't. Basketball would be the place I wouldn't have to think, just do, and I thought I would do it well.
At this point in the season the biggest reason I want to play is for my team, including my actual family, the coaches and the school. This school changed my life and it would be a great honor to play for Elmira.
So, with great dignity and respect for you, I ask you; Can I play some basketball?
