Hello Mr. Hood,

I just wanted to send you a brief email regarding Jasmine's satisfactory academics and behavior while enrolled at Boise Girls Academy.

Jasmine has been able to achieve very good grades during her enrollment, as well as gain and uphold rules and guidelines appropriate for continued interaction with peers and authority figures including teachers, counselors, and staff faculty members.

I firmly believe Jasmine will be able to extend these new found skills and behaviors at her new school, including her membership in groups and organizations like choir or other school-related activities.

Please let me know if you have any further questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Sarah Harris, LPC

Hello Mr. Hood,

I received a request from Jasmine Tang's father to send you information about Jasmine's standing as a Boise Girls Academy student.

Jasmine left Boise Girls Academy as a student in good standing. Her time here was without major incident, and I believe she will be successful in her future endeavors at your school.

Sincerely,

Crystal M. Lancaster

Hi, Mike,

Prior to the recent transfer, Jasmine had been with Boise Girls Academy, a boarding school in Boise, Idaho, till the end of January 2016. She had been studying in Boise Girls Academy for over a year and she really missed home and we decided to take her back. Late last year Jasmine applied for Westside Christian High School and got admitted for the mid school year transfer.

Choir is a subject Jasmine really enjoys and that's why she chose Choir as one her courses here at Westside.

Jasmine will send you a separate email and I will try to contact the teacher at Boise Girls Academy, but probably wont hear from them till tomorrow at the earliest.

Regards,
Li Tang

Hi, here are just some details regarding me transferring schools.

I transferred schools from BGA to Westside because my 15 months was about to end soon, which was the maximum amount of time you could stay there unless you got it extended for other reasons. I had been there for more than 13 months at that point. My dad was looking into private schools for me to go to when my months ended, but then we agreed that it would be easier to transfer me at the beginning of a new semester. So he took me out a month and a half early so I could come to Westside at this time of the year.
