To Whom it May Concern,

Carson Little was a senior student at Jesuit High School. On Tuesday, February 16, 2016, Carson withdrew from Jesuit and enrolled at Lincoln High School. The reasons for the withdrawal are private. Carson or his parents may choose to share them if they wish.

Thank you.

Subject: Statement for Carson Little's Transfer to Lincoln

Dear Mr. Peeler:

In the past month an event transpired where our son exhibited a lapse of wisdom and discretion that was out of character for him and the Jesuit community. Carson lacked discretion in letting four friends view inappropriate photos he was sent from a fellow Jesuit girl. It's important to me that you know that it was necessary to withdraw Carson from Jesuit, and he was released as a student in good standing.

This has been a lesson he will never forget. As a parent it is a reminder of the responsibility we ask of our children as we put these electronic devices in there hands and ask them to make good choices.

We look forward to Carson's new opportunities at Lincoln and appreciate the review to allow him to continue competing in golf for Lincoln. At this time of transition, I believe it is important to keep him motivated in an activity he loves and move forward from this set-back.

Kind regards,

Sandy Little
