To whom it may concern,

My name is Jose Linnam and I transferred from Camas Valley High School to Douglas High School. The reason that I changed schools is because I've never actually felt like I fit in at Camas Valley.

I've wanted to attend Douglas since my freshman year, but my stepdad wanted me at Camas particularly for football.

However, after football this year I got the O.K. from him. But then I decided I would wait until basketball season was over.

So, after my last basketball game, I officially transferred. Last year was my first year playing baseball, and I played for Douglas, being that Camas doesn't have a baseball program. Sucking for me, my previous school has an agreement to allow people who want to play baseball or wrestle to play for Douglas.

I really enjoyed playing last year and would be grateful and very grateful if I was able to play again.

Sincerely, Jose B. Linnam
