

Dear Mr. McIrvin

I have moved from Anchorage, Alaska on December 26, 2015 to McMinnville, Oregon. During my transition from Alaska to Oregon I moved in with my dad (Jeremy Scott) from my mother (Alina Ortega) and my step-dad (Corinthian Wiley). I moved here because I had no motivation or urge to do good in school, or work and do sports. I moved to acquire that feeling to do good in life. I was not in any contact with the tennis coach or any other sports administrators in the state of Oregon. Being approved by the board would be an honor and I would hope that you will except.

Sincerely,
Elia Ortega-scott
