To whom it may concern,

The past few years of high school have been all over the place for me. I struggled with going to classes and making good grades/choices. I was sent to a wilderness program last March to help me get it together. From there they decided to send me to The Academy at Sisters here in Bend. Being here this past year has taught me so much. It's given me the opportunity to set my priorities straight and live by the right things. I'm not only showing up to class now but I'm participating and putting forth my best effort. I would like to participate in track to be more involved in school activities. I also value health and fitness. So it definitely seems like a great opportunity for me. Thank you for your time.

To whom it may concern,

It has been brought to my attention that Carlyn's transcripts have raised concerns about her ability to participate in track. It is true that she's had a lot of ups and downs during her time in high school. However, in the last year at the Academy at Sisters, Carlyn has demonstrated incredible advancements not only in terms of her education, but in terms of her strength and abilities to rise to any challenge she faces. I think that she will be a great asset to the team. If you'd like to further discuss her participation, please don't hesitate to give me a call.

Sincerely,

Carrie Ashworth (mom)

To Whom it may concern:

This letter is in regards to Carlyn Yeatts and her eligibility to participate on the Bend High Track Team.

Carlyn arrived at the Academy at Sisters, in Bend, Oregon, on May 15, 2015. She came directly from a wilderness therapy program which she attended for approximately 90 days. Carlyn's family sent her to the wilderness program due to her risky behaviors at home, poor family relationships, and using unhealthy coping skills to deal with her anxiety and depression. Carlyn successfully completed and graduated from her wilderness program, and her therapists felt it was in her best interest if she attend a therapeutic boarding school, which is how she arrived at the Academy at Sisters. Carlyn was immediately enrolled in school, which is part of the J Bar J learning Center and part of the Bend-Lapine School District.

Since Carlyn's enrollment at the Academy at Sisters, she has made many positive changes in her life. She earned enough trust that she was able to attend Bend Senior High school in February 2016. Carlyn has remained sober and continues to improve her relationships with her family. Carlyn has learned and implemented healthy coping skills to help with her depression and anxiety. Carlyn felt that joining the Bend Senior High Track team would help her continue on the path of making positive choices, by getting to know other peers that have positive goals and healthy extra-curricular activities. Carlyn advocated for herself to be allowed to participate on the track team, which is not something that the Academy usually allows. To me, this shows Carlyn's motivation to continue to make positive changes in her life, and develop new, healthy interests and activities. Carlyn has truly come so far during her stay here and made so many positive changes in her life.

I'm very excited that Carlyn has the opportunity to participate in Track at Bend Senior High. I hope this letter is sufficient information to make this possible. Please feel free to contact me if you need any more information or have any questions.

Sincerely,

Janice Cummings

Re: Carlyn Yeats
Date: 3/31/16

I'm writing to you requesting approval of eligibility for Carlyn Yeats. Carlyn is a junior at Bend High and ineligible for athletic participation at Bend High School. Carlyn currently is not on track to graduate and is a transfer student without change of joint residence.

Carlyn has come to us from Georgia through the Sisters Girls Academy. She has had a troubled past that brought her to Sisters. She has had a very good year to this point at Bend High and has really turned herself around. Carlyn wants to participate on our track team and I believe this will only benefit and help her on this path. She is currently also .75 credits short of satisfactory progress and is working hard to fix this issue as well. She continues to be on best behavior at the Academy and is elevating herself up in levels, which will ultimately allow this participation.

Carlyn's current ineligibility centers on transfer and progress deficiencies. We are appealing to you on her behalf with the belief she is well on her way to making it right. This approval will only help her along the path back to her family in Georgia, toward graduation, and a very positive experience with track to enhance her junior year. Please consider this request as we look forward to your response.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Again we thank you!

Sincerely

Dave Williams
Athletic Director
