Dear Summit High School personell,

I kyla colon am writing this letter in regards to why I moved to Bend Oregon from Washington state and enrolled to Summit High School.

The reason I had the urge to move to Bend was to have a new change of scenery and to create new opportunities. I had no intention to enroll to any certain athletic, drama, or music program when I first moved here. I am very grateful to have been accepted to Skyliner jazz and chorale. I have never been involved in any choir or competition activities and I think all of this is a true blessing and an amazing opportunity. I am looking forward to my future in bend Oregon and am happy I enrolled into Summit High School.

sincerely,

kyla colon

This letter is to serve the purpose of explaining why Kyla Colon moved from Washington State to Bend, Oregon and subsequently enrolled in Summit High School.

Kyla is my great niece and felt that a move from Washington State to Oregon was beneficial for several reasons. They are personal in nature and had nothing to do with enrolling in a particular athletic, drama, or music program at Summit High School.

In fact, it was an ensuing honor to be admitted into the Chorale and Skyliner activities, something we did not expect or even know about when she enrolled at Summit. It was not until after she had moved here and was signing up for her classes, that we found out she could be in the Chorale group. Then at a later date, she was admitted into the Skyliner group, which was yet another blessing.

Respectfully,

Laloni Christenson

Kyla Colon transferred at the semester from Liberty Bell Jr Sr High School in Washington State to Summit High School. She didn't participate in choir at Liberty Bell and when she moved here, joined our choir program. We are requesting that she be eligible to compete with our program here. Thank you for your consideration.

Activities Director

Kyla's previous high school in Washington, Liberty Bell Jr Sr High, is currently on Spring Break so we are unable to get a letter from their principal at this time.
